JDA Software Announces Cash Repurchase of Series B Preferred Stock and Common Stock, Appointment to the Board of Directors of CEO Hamish Brewer and Employment Agreement with Mr. Brewer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--[JDA[®] Software Group, Inc.](#) (NASDAQ: JDAS) today announced that it has repurchased with cash all of its remaining Series B convertible preferred stock outstanding as of Sept. 8, 2009. This stock was issued to finance the Company's successful acquisition of Manugistics in 2006.

JDA has agreed to purchase from funds affiliated with Thoma Bravo, LLC (the "Thoma Bravo Funds") 19,472 shares of its Series B convertible preferred stock and common stock owned by the Thoma Bravo Funds, totaling 1,503,387 common equivalent shares for a purchase price of $30,067,740, which translates to a purchase price of $20.00 per common equivalent share. At June 30, 2009, JDA had cash on hand of approximately $93 million.

Hamish Brewer, JDA's chief executive officer, said, "We greatly appreciate the capital and expertise that Thoma Bravo and its representative on our board of directors, Orlando Bravo, brought in connection with the Manugistics transaction. We are pleased that in just three years we have been able to essentially pay off all debt and preferred stock relating to the Manugistics acquisition. JDA is well positioned to pursue its long-term growth objectives."

Orlando Bravo, managing partner of Thoma Bravo, commented, "We have been delighted with our partnership with JDA and are happy to have assisted in this cycle of the Company's growth plans. This investment and the related acquisition are exactly the type of 'win-win' scenarios we strive for with our portfolio companies."

JDA also announced the appointment of Brewer to JDA's board of directors as a Class III director. Concurrently with this appointment, JDA and Brewer entered into an Amended and Restated Executive Employment Agreement, dated Sept. 8, 2009.
