

Pensions&Investments

Thoma Bravo adds operating partner

December 8, 2011

By Arleen Jacobius

<http://www.pionline.com/article/20111208/DAILYREG/111209914>

Matt Mongia was named an operating partner at private equity firm Thoma Bravo.

It is a new position; Mr. Mongia will be leading the Thoma Bravo financial services team and will be structuring private equity deals, said Carl Thoma, managing partner.

Mr. Mongia was a managing director in New York for Religare Global Asset Management, the multiboutique money management business of financial services group Religare Enterprises.

Alan Berkshire, head of the U.S. asset management business, has taken over Mr. Mongia's duties, wrote Subhrangshu Neogi, director, brand and corporate communications for Religare Enterprises Ltd., in an e-mail.